CHEYENNE CLUB

SARATOGA, WY

The Cheyenne Club puts the freshest Brush Creek Ranch-sourced cuisine on full display with a true seed-to-table dining experience. World-class culinary expertise is imparted to guests by our very own Executive Chef Angus McIntosh. He has spent his entire life passionately pursuing the culinary arts and will provide guests insight on delectable dishes masterfully crafted using ingredients from our very own greenhouse. With hundreds of unique wines from around the globe, a lavish bar, extremely rare 100% American Waygu, and fresh farm ingredients, guests can count on a one-of-a-kind food and beverage experience.

BRUSH CREEK BREWERY

Guests will work alongside our head brewer to take four simple ingredients – barley or malt, water, hops and yeast – and craft Brush Creek Brewery’s own take on the world’s oldest adult beverage. Sample one of our on-site brewed and bottled craft beers further enhanced with ranch-sourced and other regional ingredients that give each beer its own unique Wyoming disposition.

BRUSH CREEK DISTILLERY

Distilling phenomenal flavors is an art form, a craft that's developed and perfected daily, and in a world teeming with good spirits, it's the outstanding that survive. Utilizing some of the the freshest ingredients from our on-site greenhouse, as well as locally grown malts and foraged herbs, Brush Creek Distillery is journeying to showcase the powerful spirits being produced here in the authentic American West.

BRUSH CREEK CELLAR

Beneath the Farm and connecting the Cheyenne Club to the Saddle Barn, tens of thousands of the world's most exclusive wines are available for discovery within the spaces of the temperature controlled Brush Creek Cellar. In the deft hands of our expert sommeliers, these incredibly rare vintages from every wine-producing country in the world – including one of the largest collections of first growth Bordeaux in the United States – all have a story to tell. Experience these complex stories on a guided tour or let your palate do the storytelling as part of your meal at Cheyenne Club or anywhere across the Brush Creek Luxury Ranch Collection.

THE SPIRIT VAULT

Looking for one of the most exclusive selections of rare, small batch whiskeys? You'll find these and other exceptional spirits via secret entrance under The Farm at Brush Creek. In the Spirit Vault, our expert mixologists craft turn-of-the-century cocktails and can walk even a novice through the complexities and tastes of pre-Prohibition and more modern spirits from U.S. and around the world. From The Dalmore Constellation Collection to The Macallan No. 6, this ultra-exclusive, well-appointed destination serves up luxury in spirits' finest forms.

GREENHOUSE

The Greenhouse is 20,000 sq. ft. and produces over 100,000 of fresh fruits and vegetables annually, ensuring the farm has the freshest ingredients available. Whether picked off the vine or out of raised beds, the produce and botanicals are watered by a hydroponic system in The Greenhouse that supplies the entire facility. Overseen by our Greenhouse Director, Serge Boon, guests have the opportunity to discover everything from elaborate tours to riveting educational sessions. The Greenhouse offers guests the opportunity to pick fresh ingredients alongside Chef Angus McIntosh.

At The Farm at Brush Creek, you can add cheesemaker to your expert set of skills. At Medicine Bow Creamery you can be part of the end-to-end process of crafting your own cheeses, yogurt, ice cream, butter and more. Home to our own flock of alpine goats that graze gracefully within eyesight of The Farm, you'll have access to the freshest dairy available. This fully immersive experience is available to guests of all ages!

Whether sweet or savory – or both – are your preference, our on-site pastry chef prepares fresh bread, pastries, chocolates, and other desserts for The Farm and the rest of the Brush Creek Luxury Ranch Collection. Consistent with our fully immersive experiences available at The Farm, our bakery offers hands-on educational opportunities for all skill levels.
