

GREEN MOUNTAIN

DOWNHILL SKIING & SNOWBOARDING

Just a short, scenic drive from the iconic gates of Brush Creek Ranch lies a secluded outdoor paradise. Nestled within the sprawling borders of Medicine Bow National Forest, Green Mountain beckons to thrill-seekers and devotees of all things winter sporting.

A day's expedition kicks off early in the morning when you journey to the base of Green Mountain via tracked rangers to begin your private experience. Your first destination,

Rendezvous Yurt, is where you'll meet our expert guides and pick up gear that's been set aside just for you – including boots kept warm by a wood-burning stove.

After your morning adventure, lunch awaits you at Pat's Porch, featuring the most spectacular views in the Upper Platte River Valley. Following an afternoon spent on the slopes, you'll reconvene at Rendezvous Yurt to warm up before heading back to the Ranch for dinner.
