OVERVIEW

Brush Creek Ranch reawakens the senses under a wide, open Wyoming sky, on a 30,000-acre working cattle ranch in the great American West. The history of Brush Creek Ranch dates back to the late 1800s, when pioneers were surging Westward and establishing homesteads along the way. This ultimate Western adventure is coupled with indulgent spa treatments, memorable dining, and expertly guided outdoor adventures.

At the Lodge & Spa, guests find home in historically renovated cabin suites, residences, and lodge rooms outfitted with luxury linens, plush robes, western artwork, and other luxurious amenities. Everything is included in one's stay: gourmet meals, premium beverages, and a wide array of on-ranch activities with guides, gear, and instruction. This includes fly-fishing, horseback riding, and hiking throughout the ranch's 30,000 rugged acres.

After a day on the range, hearty appetites are indulged with family-style feasts in the Trailhead Lodge great room, creekside barbecues, or a sunset Teppanyaki experience. A leader in sustainability, Brush Creek Ranch is the place for genuine Western hospitality and an unbridled ranch vacation.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

TRAILHEAD LODGE

The Trailhead Lodge boasts impressive views, an unrivaled atmosphere of consistently delivering excellent service, and healthy-start options to kick off the day the right way. The culinary team implements innovative techniques to curate a menu that reflects regionally-relevant flavors.

PIONEER KITCHEN

The cuisine – sometimes rustic and rugged like the terrain, sometimes refined and elegant – blazes the trail for a new expression of what the region has to offer in terms of natural resources and culinary expression. Menu items include Burnt Carrots & Parsnip, Charred Wagyu Short Rib, Mushroom Bolognese, and Cedar Planked Ora King Salmon, among many others.

TEPPANYAKI GARDEN

In an intimate, open-air pavilion setting, with lush garden views, experts prepare gourmet cuisine of ranch-raised, 100% American Wagyu beef, freshly flown-in seafood, poultry, and farm-fresh vegetables right at the teppanyaki table. Seating up to 8 guests at one station or 16 total in the restaurant, this is the perfect family experience for small or larger groups.

CREEKSIDE DINNER CAMP

Situated along the banks of Brush Creek, guests are invited to enjoy a peaceful meal outdoors as little ones run free, partake in roping lessons, and roast marshmallows. Meanwhile, adults enjoy live music and expertly prepared campfire meals under star-studded Wyoming skies.

THE SALOON

The Saloon is a cultural icon, a place where the good times are always rolling, filled with energizing atmosphere with guests enjoying games like pool and shuffleboard, and the occasional live performance.
